

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Opening Question

What word would you use to describe your family dynamics growing up or in your current home? Why did you choose that word?

Key Takeaways

- 1.) Grace is God's unmerited favor and kindness towards us.
- 2.) The cross isn't just where our sins were forgiven; it's the shape of how we should live daily.
- 3.) Biblical submission in marriage is about trust rooted in grace, not control.
- 4.) Husbands are called to serve and protect, mirroring Christ's love for the church.
- 5.) Grace moves first, builds up, and creates room for growth, not fear.

Discussion Questions

- 1.) How does understanding grace as "unmerited favor" change your perspective on your relationships?
- 2.) Pastor Hasani emphasized that men bear primary responsibility for the health of their marriages. Do you agree or disagree? Why?
- 3.) How can wives show respect to their husbands while still maintaining their own dignity and worth?
- 4.) Discuss the analogy of the umbrella as protection. How does this relate to God's covering and our roles in family?
- 5.) The sermon mentioned that "grace disciplines for restoration, not punishment." How can parents apply this principle with their children?
- 6.) What are some practical ways we can "forgive quickly" in our daily lives?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Practical Application

- 1.) This week, practice "choosing words that heal" in your family interactions. Share your experience next time.
- 2.) Create a daily moment of prayer and encouragement with your spouse or children.
- 3.) If you've been holding onto resentment, take steps to forgive someone who has hurt you.
- 4.) Husbands: Reflect on how you can better serve and protect your family this week. Wives: Consider ways you can show respect to your husband, even in challenging moments.
- 5.) For everyone: Identify one area where you need to extend more grace to yourself or others. Make a plan to do so.

Closing Prayer

Lord, thank you for your unmerited grace towards us. Help us to extend that same grace to our families and loved ones. Shape our homes to reflect Your love and the sacrifice of the cross. Give us the strength to forgive quickly, speak healing words, and lead with patience. In Jesus' name, Amen.
