DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

PART 1 | WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Opening Question

Who was your favorite teacher growing up, and what made them stand out to you?

Key Takeaways

- 1.) Jesus came as the Word made flesh to enlighten us and bring understanding to God's word.
- 2.) Having knowledge of scripture is not enough - we need understanding and transformation.
- 3.) Jesus taught through both words and actions, making complex truths accessible.
- 4.) As Christians, we're called to be disciples who make disciples.

Discussion Questions

- 1.) The sermon mentions that many people approach Easter as just another holiday. How can we keep the focus on Jesus' resurrection and its significance?
- 2.) Pastor Zach emphasizes the importance of being taught God's word. What are some ways you currently engage with biblical teaching outside of Sunday services?
- 3.) The sermon highlights how Jesus often answered questions with questions. How might this approach be beneficial in our own conversations about faith?
- 4.) Discuss the statement: "Not everyone who knows the words knows the Word." What's the difference between knowing Bible facts and truly knowing Jesus?
- 5.) How does Jesus' teaching style, as described in the sermon, challenge or inspire your own approach to sharing your faith?
- 6.) Pastor Zach mentions that we shouldn't take access to God's Word for granted. How can we cultivate a greater appreciation for the Bible in our daily lives?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

PART 1 | WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Practical Application

- 1.) Commit to reading through one of the Gospels before Easter, focusing on Jesus' teachings (the "red letters").
- 2.) Identify one area where you have knowledge of scripture but may lack understanding. Make a plan to study that topic more deeply.
- 3.) Practice explaining a biblical concept using a modern-day parable or analogy, as Jesus often did.
- 4.) Reflect on your own "image-bearing" this week. How can you better reflect God's image in your daily interactions?

Closing Reflection

Thank God for sending Jesus as the ultimate teacher. Ask for wisdom to not just know His words, but to understand and live them out. Pray for opportunities to share His teachings with others in meaningful ways.
